Solariega. A taste of the Caribbean in Davao City. A diverse mix of European, American, Dutch, and other Western influences evident in a residential community you will be proud to call home. Solariega, a Spanish term that means noble or ancestral home, is the first prime community development in Davao City of the pioneer themed subdivision developer, Crown Communities. It is home to over a thousand families who enjoy its Caribbean-inspired houses set amidst majestic palm trees and profusely-flowering plants in full bloom throughout the year.
